THE OHIO CONTEST.

A STATEMENT THAT HOADLY IS TO BE WITH-DRAWN-A SCENE IN THE NEIL HOUSE AT COL-

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 4.—Another sensational feature of the campaign in Ohio occurred this evening in the rotunda of the Neil House. It is the week of the State Fair and the city crowded, and the office of the Neil se was full of politicians and men interested in political contest. During the general conversation. Daid R. Paige, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee and Congressman-elect from the XXth District, approached Carson Lake, a Il-known correspondent of The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, and who only three years ago was the cretary of the Democratic State Executive Committee, and showed him a dispatch over his signature, saying that Paige was authority for the statement that Hoadly was about to be withdrawn n the campaign. Lake had asserted that his statement was true Mr. Lake had asserted that his statement was true and used most energetic language about Mr. Paige, which the latter quietly took, to the great disgust of his friends who had assembled to see him thrash Mr. Lake, as he declared it was his intention to do. The political people of the city are greatly excited over the affair, and the feeling is general that Mr. Paige cut a very poor figure, especially as it is well understood Paige would like to see Headly with the total processing the many control the way. get out of the way.

A REPUBLICAN MEETING AT BEDFORD-THE CON-GRESSIONAL APPORTIONMENT QUESTION.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] BEDFORD, Penn., Sept. 4 .- The Republican meeting in Bedford to-night was very large and suc-cessful. Addresses were delivered by Senator Macne, of Philadelphia, and by Chairman P. V. Cooper. The Hon. John Cessna presided. Senator MacFariane give a clear exposition of the apportion ment question, and claimed that the Republican ultimatom was right and just and bever be receded from. He raised two objections to the Democratic theory of apportionment according to the trength of the respective parties. First, that it is unjust as it would give, if carried out in the entire country, nine condity, that it is impracticable, as it is impossible to carry out their theory in seventeen of a States.

His impossible to carry out their theory in seventeen of instates.

Chairman Cooper was introduced by his colleague Senter Longenecker. Mr. Cooper said that the Pathson lumbing Administration had united both wings of the Repolition party and that the Administration had aiready put attact of 50 cents a head on every voter in the commonwealth by the extra season folly. The Democrats half land themselves upon the position that apportionment should be made in accordance with political lines, said the Republicans on the position that apportionment should be made according to population as declared in the constitution of the State. The Republicans in the Semate had taken their position in the apportionment oills and would stand by it.

GETTING READY FOR BUFFALO.

ACTION OF THE TAMMANY COMMITTEE ON ORGANI-ZATION.

John Kelly presided last night at a meeting of the Tammany Committee on Organization held Tamnany Hall. The meeting was held for the purpose of making arrangements for the primary elections to send delegates to Buffalo. A call was read regarding the holding of the primaries and referred back to the committee presenting it, to be reported again to the General Commutee, which meets on Friday night. The State law regulating the voting at primary elections, passed by the last I egislature, was read and explained. Mr. Kelly emphasized the fact that the memo-rs of Tammany Hail must see to it that they obeyed, explaining that "if we do not we can be arrested and treated like any other criminals As we propose to hold our own primaries, [applause.] as a representative organization independent of our neighbors, we must be eareful not to violent the law." Mr. Spinola exhorted the persons present to exert themselves to see that every Assembly District sent at least one parlor-ear full of delegates and their friends to the State Convention. A Committee on Transportation was appointed and Commissioner Breanan was appointed to act as grand marshal. Commissioner John J. Gorman was defailed to visit Buffslo and engage rooms for the Tammany Hall delegates and their friends. Mr. Kelly suggested that it might be well, in the interest of harmony, and to put an end to all bickernigs, to adopt a resolution appointing a committee to confer with the other Democratic organizations about the propriety of sending a united delegation to Buffslo. He added significantly that the other organizations might see the necessity of such a uniou, when they recalled Tammany's suggestion made two years ago, and rejected, "but," he said, "if our friends do not see the matter in this light we can't help it. There is no reason why the bickerings should continue longer." Alexander Thorn was appoint chairman of a committee to prepare such a resolution, which will be submitted to the General Committee. Spinola exhorted the persons present

NEGROES WHO WANT OFFICES.

A meeting of the Colored Republican Central Committee was held at Science Hall, in Eightn-st., Inst evening, William Freeman presiding. The attendance was small, although the committee has a membership of ever 125 delegates. Resolutions setting forth the grievances among the colored voters of the city and recommending the appointment of a committee five members to confer with Republican party in regard to the grievances were adopted. The chairman appointed Edward Bark net, William H. Lewis, George Hitchings, William W. Jones and S. L. Stokley as the committee. A call for the holding of the primaries in the various Assembly Dis-tricts for the election of delegates to the Central Committee was read. The chairman said that it had been rumored that the Central Committee was becoming disthere had been were of a personal nature and had in no way affected its efficiency. Samuel Stokley stated out of a population of six million colored people in this country, less than 1,000 were office-holders. The Republican party had performed a great deed in liberating the negroes, but it had no right to compet them to vote any ticket against their will. He affirmed that the time had come when the colored men should be allowed to hold official positions.

Mr. Chairman : I thank you cordially for your kind greeting. I am glad to take part in these festivities. The great work accomplished which they commemorate may well be celebrated, and well may the residents of your city, which stands at the gateway of that highway sretching far out to the western sea, congratulate themselves as they are about to enter upon a career of renewed prosperity. Coming to you from that won ler land of America, I have travelled a thousand miles by the Northern Pacific Railroad. Nothing I have read, noth-ing I have ever neard, has equalled what I have seen, which convinces me of the importance of this great enterprise, and that it has not been overestimated by its most sanguine triends. All honor, then, to the zeal and energy waich has given to that enterprise such tremendous success.

RAISING THE BOILERS OF THE RIVERDALE.

Supervising-Inspector-General Dumont has eccived a letter from Inspector of Steamboats Starbuc in which the intter says that it has been, found impossible to raise the hull of the steamer Riverdaie with the boilers in and that the work is now being directed to getting the boilers out of the hull and raising them first. General Dumont thinks that an earner opportunity will thus be given to examine the condition of the boilers than if the original plan were carried out. A visit to the wreck yesterday, however oneclosed the fact that Inspector Starduck was reckoning without Captain Timmons, the latter having determined as soon as he had raised the boilers out of the huil to had taken clear of the wreck and quietly drop them into the river again, so as to allow the work of raising the huil to proceed as quickly as possible. It was only after the first boiler had be raised to within a few feet of the surface that J. C. Baxter persuaded Captain Thamons to have the boilers towed to the nearest pier in order that the finspectors might have the earliest opportunity possible to examine them.

The inquest on the victims of the disaster will take place to-day.

A STORY OF SHIPWRECK.

THE CAPTAIN, SECOND MATE AND ONE SAILOR

ABANDONING A SWEDISH SHIP.

SWEPT OAERBOARD-THE STORM RECORD. On the steamship Macedonia, which arrived at this port yesterday from Gibraltar, were all that the winds and waves had spared of the crew of the Swedish ship David. The story of the loss of the David and the sufferings of her crew was told to a TRIBUNE reporter by the first mate of the ill-fated ship, the only one of her officers who survives. He said: "We left Batavia on May 17 with a cargo consisting largely of coffee. We were bound for New-York and had fair weather until we reached the Cape of Good Hope. The captain, Mr. Strom-berg, had his wife and two children on board and a maid. My wife, who is a cousin of the captain, was berg, had his wife and two children on board and a maid. My wife, who is a cousin of the captain, was also on board. The children were six and eight years old respectively. We reached the Cape in the latter part of June and encountered heavy seas and high winds. The ship labored so that she started some of her seams and we put into St. Helena for repairs. We left there on July 26. On Angust 28 a terrible storm struck us. It came up from the southeast and was accompanied by tremendous seas. It was a horrible day, but nothing compared to the day which followed it. The wind vested to the north-ast and blew a hurricane. It came in fierce squalls and the sea ran in great mountains of foaming water. It was 4:30 a. m. when the wind changed to the northeast, and the vessel was at once thrown on her beam ends. We mountains of foaming water. It was 4:30 a. in. when the wind changed to the northeast, and the vessel was at once thrown on her beam ends. We had shortened sail, but the gusts sult all of those we had up. One blast sent the maintopmast by the board and broke the goose-neck on the mainyard. At length a tremendous sea broke over the stern and swept everything that was loose from the deck. The binnacle was broken and four spokes were knocked out of the wheel. The second mate had his legs broken but continued on deck. The condition of the women and children at this time was pittable. We so deck did all that mon could do, for we were fighting for our lives. Sea after sea swept over the slaip and knocked her around like a plaything. The braces and brace-chams were carried away, the yards were all attrift and the ship was unmanagable. A sea smashed the bulwarks on the starboard quarter and broke the wheel into fragments. The captain, the second mate, two saitors and myself there washed overloand by the same wave. I was whirled about like a chip, and then found myself there washed overloand by the same wave. self were washed overboard by the same wave, was whirled about like a chip, and then found myself thrown violently on to the deck again along with one of the sailors. The captain, the second mate and the other sailor who had been swept overboard we never saw again. All that day and night we labored. Men lashed to All that day and night we labored. Men lashed to the pumps tried to keep the ship free of water, for she was leaking badly. We threw overboard part of the eargo to lighten the vessel, and nailed canvas over the large seam which had opened in the deck. The pumps became choked, but we cleared them and kept them going through the night. The next day the pumps choked again. At 11 o'clock we sighted a schooner. We still hoped next day the pumps choked again. At 11 o'clock we sighted a schooner. We still hoped to save the ship and did not signal the schooner. Then we found that the stern-post was started and all the seams in the quarter-deck opened. We threw overboard two anchors and some chains. The storm and the sea increased in violence, and at 1 o'clock in the afternoon we signted a brig. A consultation was held, and we decided to signal her. So we ran up a signal of distress. In the meantime we saw a steamer which proved to be the Maccdonian. She sent her lifebout to our assistance and we got aboard with considerable difficulty. All might the steamer lay by the David, and the next morning tried to tow her. But it was found to be impossible, and she was finally abandoned."

The David was about three years old and was 450 tons burden. She was consigned to Funch, Edye & Co., of this city, and was partially insured. Her cargo was valued at $150,000, and was shipped by Wellenstein. Kause & to., of Batavia, to their r-presentative in this city. H. De Majnere, of No. 41 Broad-st. About the time that the Macedonian sighted the David she also saw a Greek or an Italian bark flying signals of distress.

The British bark Lady Dufferin, which sailed from London on July 2, arrived at this port vesterday. She reported heavy storms during most of the voyage. On Angust 14, in latitude 46° 30′, longisude 43° 20′, she encountered a severe sorthwest gale, and on August 22′, in latitude 43° 38′, longitude 43° 20°, she encountered a severe sorthwest gale, and on August 23, in latitude 43° 38', longitude 63° 30', she experienced. and on August 22, in latitude 435 38, longitude 635 36', she experienced a hutricane. The sca was very high and the waves broke over the vessel with appalling force and frequency. The boats were stove, the deck-house partly washed away and everything loose swept from the decks. The storm was followed by an almost absolute calm and a heavy swell, which caused the vessel to labor heavily.

caim and a heavy swell, which caused the vessel to labor heavily.

All the incoming vessels from across the Atlantic likewise bring reports of heavy storms. The steamer Anchoria, of the Anchor Line, from Glasgow, encountered a gate on Angust 26, which lasted twelve hours. The steamer passengers became frightened, and several were injured by being tossed about by the rolling of the steamer. A woman's collar-bone was broken and a boy's leg badly sprained.

Captain Gapthi of the brig Sullivan, of Boston, which arrived vesterday, reports seeing a ship's mass standing about twelve feet out of water on the Fenwick shoals. The bark Chigneeto, of Windsot, N. S., had her topsals blown away in the gale which so tossed about the other vessels. The Italian bark Louisa Bruno arrived vesterday from Tarragona, having lost most of her sails in a evere gale, and having had a rough passage generally.

THE CONEY ISLAND FIGHTERS BAILED.

The two prize-fighters who were arrested at Coney Island on Monday were arraigned before Justice Willams at Gravesend, yesterday morning. Although both Dempsey and the man who gave his name as Force, but who has since declared it to be Stronger. had endeavored to have their countenances appear as innocent as possible, there was abundance of evidence, scratches and cuts, to prove how desperate the encounter had been. Behind the fighters, when they were led into the court-room, came a policeman with the gloves which the men had worn. They were stained with blood. When the ourt was opened one of the counsel for the prison-rs entered into a dispute with the Justice and in-ited him to put on the gloves. The invitation was eclined, and then the following dialogue took place: "We plead guilty and ask for an examination," said the counsel.

"I don't care how you plead. I intend to se the men back to their cells," answered Justice W

"Would it be out of place if I were to ask for their discharge I" continued the lawyer.

"You can ask me what you darn please."

"Well, I do ask it. No offence has been proved against them."

"So you wish me to let them go !"

Well, I won't."

The prisoners were taken back to their cells. Late in the afternoon the Justice said he would fix the ball at $500 for each man, and H. Hamilton, of Gravesend, gave bones in that amount for Demose and James Armstrong, of No. 61 John-st., becam security for Stronger

HELD TO ANSWER FOR BURGLARIES.

In the Harlem Police Court yesterday, evidence being produced implicating Walter Allen and 'Dutch" Moore in the burglary of Mrs. Aronson's house, No. 180 East Seventy-ninth-st., Justice Morhouse, No. 180 East Seventy-ninth-st., Justice Morgan held the accused men in $2,000 bail each to answer. "Mari" Alien was not identified in connection with the crime. Michael Thomas, who was arrested in court on Monday, was held in $1,000 bail for trial on Aonie Deraney's testimony that he was talking with the prisoners previous to the burglary of the house of J. W. Crevns. On the charge of breaking into the house of I. G. Miller at No. 323 East One-hundred-and-sixteenth-st, the accused men waived examination and were held in $1,000 each for trial.

COMMITTED FOR BEATING HIS FATHER.

Frank P. McKenna, age twenty-four, on Monday night beat his aged father, Frank McKenna, who keeps a liquor shop. He was arrested, and in the Tombs Police Court yesterday he was committed for trial. Some years ago he was charged with killing a man named Wilson. A jury convicted him of manslaughter, but an appeal being taken, he was given a second trial, at which he secured his acquittal. It is said that his father, who was wellto-do, spent considerable money to save his son and is now comparatively poor.

ATTEMPTS AT SUICIDE IN BROOKLYN.

A policemau in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, vesterday morning, about 9:30 o'clock, heard two pistol shots fired from the shelter on the South Lake Drive, and going thither found that Adolph Grube, age twenty-two, of No. 666 Broadway, Brookiyn, had attempted to com mit suicide. He had fired two bullets from a 32-calibr revolver into his left breast in the region of the heart. Grube said that he was tired of life. GEORGE W. LAKE'S STARVING CHILDREN.

REVELATIONS OF A STATEN ISLAND HOMESTEAD. George W. Lake is the senior partner of the firm of Lake & Co., importers of Japanese goods at Canton and at No. 74 Pme-st., in this city. His home is at Southfield, S. I. Recently a woman, who said that she was the wife of Mr. Lake, called at the police-station in Southfield, and made charges against him of cruelty to his four children and abandonment. Her statements were verified when an official investigation was made, and Mrs. Lake and the children were promptly removed to the County Almshouse, where they are now being cared for. Yesterday Mr. Lake was ar raigned before Justice Young, at the Richmond County Court House, on charges of cruelty and abandon ment. Officer O'Toole, who was the first to visit the home of Mrs. Lake after she had made her complaint, testified to finding the inmates in a most pitiable condition. The rooms were filthy, the three elder children were crying for food, and the baby was sitting on the floor trying to extract nourishment from a bottle that had once con ained milk, the remains of which had become putrid. The officer went to a neighbor's and procured food, waich was ravenously devoured, but the baby was toe weak at first to take the fresh milk brought for it.

Mr. Corbett, agent of the Society for the Prevention o Cruelty to Children, supplemented this testimony by saying that the four children were nearly naked and in a disgusting condition generally. The oldest child, a girl, age eight, said they had never had enough to eat. The mother was dressed in nothing but a wrapper, fastened with a string, and her feet were stockingless. The woman was thought to have become demented from ill-treatment, and bitterly denounced Mr. Lake. There was no bedding in the house fit to use and no food at all Samuel W. called his daughter, he explained, was the same person who says she is his wife, and is now in the Almshouse. In his testimony he said further;

"I became acquainted with this Georgiana Towne, now my tousekeeper, in Topsaidd, Mass., in 1871. I thought she would make a good woman and I pand her expenses at a Quaker school. I told them at the school tout she was my daughter. She was then seventeen years old and I was thirty-two. She was pretty and large for ner age. Three years later I was divorced from my wife and came to New-York with Georgiana. After our first child was bern she became my housekeeper, We have lived on Staten Island since 1878. A. the hotel in New-York where we lived san passed as my daughter. When we kept house in New-York the police 'coernea us out' there the same as they have done here. I own a farm in Pennsylvania, when is in the name of a boy mamed after the; I have cattle and farming supplies on my place in Southfield."

Mr. Lake decined to sign his testimony. In default my place in Southfield."

Mr. Lake decided to sign his testimony. In default of $1.000 oall he was remanded back to fail. The hearing was adjourned until Friday morning.

THE COLLISION ON LONG ISLAND.

THE CONDUCTOR AND ENGINEER OF THE FAR ROCKAWAY TRAIN TESTIFY AT THE INQUEST. Coroner Everitt began the inquest last evening in the Jamaica Town Hall on the bodies of John Hart and Henry Bolte, the victims of the collision on Sunnay evening between the Far Rockaway an Beach trains at Springfield. first witness was Isane Carlton, the engineer of the Far Rockaway train. He testified:

"The train left Far Rockaway by schedule time at 7:30. After leaving Far Rockaway we stopped at all the stations until we came to Valley Stream, where the train is switched upon the main track. Valley Stream we were two minutes behind time. did not know that the Long Beach train was following so closely, not being familiar with the time schedule of any train except my own. Just before reaching Springfield, Conductor Johnston sent word by the head brakeman for me to stop at Springfield, as he wanted to let some passengers off. We arrived at Springfield Station at 7:52. We were two minutes late. We remained at Springfield about one minute and a half. I did not receive any meas go from the conductor to start. I heard two whistles behind me, and acting on my own responsibility, I started the train. I had gone about 500 feet when the collision occurred."

The next witness was Conductor George S. Johnston.

of the Par Rockaway train. His testimony was sub-clautially as follows: "On my arrival at Far Rockaway I went into Stront's agent at that place. I drank agent at that place. I drank one ginger ale. I drank nothing previous on that day. I left Far Rockaway at 7:31 p. m., being one minute behind time. As we crossed the swifen at Valley stream I looked at my water and it was 7:52. I was then seven minutes behind time. I knew the Long Beach train was due at Valley Stream at 7:49. I thought it had gone ahead. A week aco hat sunday I was four minutes late and the Long Beach train passed in front of me. I received no signal from the switchman that the Long Beach train had passed. I had the right of way to toe main track had I been on time. I I went to the roar platform to get the signal. While there i left the train increase in speed, and therefore there i felt the train increase in speed, and therefore concluded that the engineer had received the proper signal. White the train was running into Valley Stream I had tromble with two passengers, a lady and a centleman. They had tickets on the New York, Woodmayen and Rockaway Road. Informed the a that their tickets were not good on my branen of the road. I a ked toem for $1. the price of the fare. The man said: No, sir, I won't pay anything,' I told him I would put him off at the next station. He said I couldn't do it. When the train arrived at springfleid, it stopped, I previously having ordered the engineer to stop I I waked to the rear platform and saw my brakeman running back on the track with a red lantern. It was very dark. I went back into the car and told the passengers that if they didn't get off by fair means I would put them off by foul. He replied I couldn't do either. I then took hold of him to pat him off. He offered some resistance. I did not strugtle with him at all. He never moved from his seat until the collision occurred I heart two loud blasts of a whistie. I jumped for my be ilecord and patied it volcently. My orders are it a passenger does not pay his fare to stop at the next station and put sent a confine to did not have found out whether the Loug Beach train was ahead of me until arrived at Jamaica."

The triquest then adjourned until Thursday evening.

SUSPICIONS OF MALPRACTICE.

Deputy Coroner Donlin last night informed the Police Central Office of a case of supposed malpractice. Yesterday morning Katherine Foley, a married woman, age twenty-one, died suddenly at the Bull's Head Hotel, at Third-ave, and Twenty-fourth-st. Nothing being remarked as suspicious at the time, at the request of the woman's husband, Michael Foiey, Coroner Levy gave a permit early in the day to remove the body to an undertaker's shop in Ninety-ninth-st. There Dr. Donita viewed it in the afternoon. From the bottles of medicine found in the room where she died, as well as from the statement of Mrs. McDonald, who keeps a restaurant at Twenty-ninth-st. and Third-ave., the teath certificate was made out by Dr. Donitn. and the cause of death assigned as heart disease. Mrs. McDonald said that she had employed Mrs. Foley in her place and she was under medical treatment for that die ase. A superficial examination of the body revealed nothing suspicious. During the day, however, ramors reached the Coroner's office that the case was one of mal practice. Dr. Donita said last night that he would make practice. Dr. Donlin said last night that he would make a post-mortem examination of the body this morning and determine the truth of the reports. Coroser Levy has also taken steps to have Median Foloy, who is an orderly in the United States Marite Hospital, brought before him to testify to what he knows.

Dr. Doplin, in making a superficial examination of the deal body of a young woman in this city yesterday in another case, found what he believes to be indisputable evidence of maligractice. He will make an autopy today. Yesterday he refused to give the name of the woman or any further particulars about the case.

FEARING FOR A HUSBAND'S SAFETY.

An expensively dressed woman called at Police Headquarters last night and asked for Julormi tion concerning her husband, John Monahan. Mrs. Monanan said that on Sunday her husband went with an excursion party from Yonkers to Fort Lee. He kept excursion party from Yonkers to Fort Lee. He kept the bar on board of the bargs. During the return voyage from Fort Lee, Monahan, according to the statement of Daniel McLaugain, the engineer of the tag Hayes which had the barge in tow, had a difficulty on board with one of the passeniers. When the party landed at Yonkers at 10 o'clock Sunday high Monahan locked up the bar and went ashore. Since then nothing has been heard of him, and Mrs. Monahan thinks the passenger with whom he had the trouble on Lee excursion has murdered him.

Captain Cherry, who was on duty at Headquarters, telegraphed to Youkers to ascertain whether such a man had been arrested there. The Yonkers police sent word that they did not have Monahan. The woman went home in tears after belog advised to make further inquiries at Headquarters to-day.

THE CHILDREN'S HOLIDAY.

VERMONT.

PARTIES SENT TO LONG ISLAND, CONNECTICUT AND

Twenty-six young beneficiaries of THE morning by way of the Thirty-fourth st. Ferry and the Long Island Railroad. They were bound for Smithtown. L. I., where for two weeks they will be the invited guests of Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Hallock, Mrs. Wills, Mrs. Nostrand, Mrs. R. Thompson, Mrs. Conklin, Mrs. Darling, Mrs. L'hommedieu, Mrs. Morenus, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Brush, Mrs. Caleb Smith, Mrs. W. Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Willetts, Mrs. E. O. Smith, Mrs. Ely, Mrs. J. Lawrence Smith and Mrs. Miller. The visit of the children was arranged by Mrs. N. Smith. They were collected in this city by the Rev. Newton Perkins and Dr. A. S. Daniel, and in Jersey City by Dr. S. W. Clark. The children were all neatly dressed through extra efforts of their parents and with the aid of those who collected them, but their pale, caraworn faces showed plainly that they came from narrow, dark rooms in unwholesome tenement houses. The regular fare on the railroad was paid for each mamber of the party, as the Long Island Railroad officials refused to make any reduction in the price for the Fresh Air Fund. company is the only one which has made such a refusal this season, all the other transportation lines out of the city which have been used being glad to help in the work of charity.

Another party of thirty boys and girls was sent by THE TRIBUNE Fresh-Air Fund into the country yesterday orning by the 8 o'clock train from the Grand Central Depot. They went by the New-Haven Rairroad New-London, where they were met by their hosts and taken to homes in the vicinity. Some of them were gathered by the St. Vincent Mission in Forty-second-st., and the rest came from the Dewitt Memorial Church on Delancey-st. They were under the Memorial Church on Delancey-st. They were under the care of Miss Fraulhaber.

The rundy spiender of an unclouded subset tinged the pale checks of the little voyagers who formed one of the parties sent out by THE TRIBUNE Fresh Air Fund last evening, as they sat on the deck of the Troy boat. The party consisted of thirty-five children, several of whom were in charge of their mothers, and was the third sent out this season to enjoy the generous hospitality of the Park family at Maple Grove, Bennington, Vermont This morning Mr. Toppan will furnish breakfast when the party reaches Troy, and it will then proceed directly to Maple Grove.

A large number of the children were sent by one of the physicians of the Woman's Medical College, whose efforts to select cases especially in need of change and country air have been unremitting throughout the summer.

INTERNATIONAL RIFLE MATCH,

COLONEL HOWARD'S REPORT TO THE NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION. The directors of the National Rifle Association yesterday received the report of Colonel G. E. P. Howard captain of the American team in the late International Rifle contest at Wimbledon. The report was cocepted, and the thanks of the association were tendered the officers and members of the team, "The members of the team would have you feel that while the palm of victory was not awarded to them, yet they think they should not be considered egotistical if they express the opinion that they outshot the British so long as skill and team discipline were of any avail." The practice of the team at Creedmoor might have been more satisfactory, he thought, had the riflemen received the ammunition provided for them with that confidence which can only come after long use. "As yet," he said, "our riflemen are not prepared to accept factory-loaded assuminition with the same confidence as that loaded by themselves and some method must be devised whereby the individ ual may have confidence in the ammunition which he is required to use."

Colonel Howard expressed himself as satisfied that the National Rifle Association of Great Britain had given him every facility for team-practice at its disposal. He thought that no conclusions could be drawn from the American team's practice, as to the relative merits of the two kinds of rifles unless there should be some uniformity in the ammunition used in both guns. The good condition of the men on the days of the match he attributed to their obedience to orders in regard to care of their quarters, regularity of diet, and of practice. After enumerating toe many courresies extended to the team in England he recommended that some recognition be made of them.

On motion it was decided to send letters of thanks to all individuals and associations that had extended courtesies to the American Team. The treasurer submitted a preliminary coport showing the total amount of subscriptions for the match to have been $7.662, and the total receipts $8,417.70. Including $755.50 returned by Colonel. Howard, the total disbursements were $8.417.70. National Rifle Association of Great Britain had given Colonel Howard, the total disbursements were $3.417 70.

The gold medal valued at $100, offered by Secretary Seabury to the member of the team doing the most, for the cause was, on the recommendation of the team, awarded to J. H. Brown. A committee was appointed to prepare for next year's match, when the English rifle-men wil visit this country. Colonel R. C. Ward and Major Morse were appointed a committee to devise some suitable testimonial for the team.

THE DEBT OF VIRGINIA.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION IN THE UNITED STATES COURTS.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 4 .- A decision of the utmost importance was rendered here to-day by JudgeBond of the United States Circuit Court, concerning the State debt. After a decision was rendered by the United States Supreme Court last spring in the Virginia debt case, counsel for foreign bonduolders of London, through their attorneys, William and Royal, of New-York, instituted a number of suits in the Circuit Court of the United States ners to test the conclusions which Mr. Royal in sisted that decision led to.

Judge Bond to-day decided these cases. He holds ! First, that a tender of coupons for taxes is a legal tender, that all consequences which flow from any other legal tender flow from this, and that this is the ef-fect of the Supreme Court decision; second, that officers of the State will be en-joined from levying on a taxpayer's propjoined from levying on a largager property after a tender of coupons has been made; third, that as the questions in these suits depend upon the constitutionship of the State's legislation, the suits arise under the Constitution, and that Circuit Courts of the United States have the jurisdiction of them, without regard to the citizenship of the parties. Jurgs Bond's jurisdiction extends over the entire State. If his decision is not reversed it would seem that the State can collect no more revenue until she provides for the coupons.
